2024 Primary Election Information

A Primary Election is a preliminary (nominating) election to select (when necessary) Democratic, Republican, and nonpartisan candidates who will run in the General Election contests. Some, but not all, candidates in nonpartisan contests may be elected to office in a Primary Election if they receive more than 50% of the votes cast.

In Nevada, State and Federal Primary Elections are "CLOSED." This means only Democratic and Republican voters may vote in partisan contests. Additionally, Democratic and Republican voters may not vote for candidates from another party than their own. However, all registered voters may vote in nonpartisan contests, including voters whose party affiliation is other than Democratic or Republican.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY VOTERS: If the party affiliation in your voter registration is Democratic, you may vote in your precinct's contests which select Democratic candidates AND in all of your precinct's nonpartisan contests.

REPUBLICAN PARTY VOTERS: If the party affiliation in your voter registration is Republican, you may vote in your precinct's contests which select Republican candidates AND in all of your precinct's nonpartisan contests.

ALL OTHER VOTERS: If the party affiliation in your voter registration is not Democratic or Republican, you may only vote in nonpartisan contests for your precinct. Minor party, other party, and independent (no party) candidates for partisan contests only appear in the General Election, not the Primary Election.

Other interesting facts about voting in Nevada's Primary Elections include:

- You will have the option to select "None of These Candidates" in all statewide contests (U.S. Senate in the 2024 Primary Election) if you do not wish to vote for any candidate for the office, per NRS 293.269.
- Nevada law (NRS 293.270) does not permit write-in candidates.

Electronic Sample Ballots

You may receive your sample ballot by e-mail instead of through the regular mail. Per Nevada law, your e-mail address will be kept CONFIDENTIAL and it may not be given to third parties. Sign-up today on the Election Department's website by logging in to Registered Voter Services at:
