The Nevada Secretary of State’s system of approved electronic transmission established for certain uniformed military and overseas voters may be used by a person with a disability to register to vote and also by a registered voter with a disability to cast a mail ballot.

ASSEMBLY BILL 126 (AB126)A Presidential Preference Primary (PPP) replaces Major Party

Caucuses: Starting in 2024, Nevada will have a Presidential Preference Primary (PPP) instead of caucuses to determine the preferences of registered Democratic and Republican voters for their major party’s nominee for U.S. President from among multiple candidates in their party. You may only vote for candidates from your own party (the party you specified on your voter registration application). Minor parties will not participate in the PPP and their candidates will go directly to the General Election ballot.
