

MSHCP Current Areas of Focus

Research on propagation and restoration methods for rare plant species

Develop methods that improve monitoring outcomes for desert tortoise and other cryptic, hard-to-detect species

Improve our understanding of desert tortoise habitat connectivity and implement actions that reconnect important habitat areas

Reduce predator subsidies and predation pressure on vulnerable species

Conduct restoration of unauthorized routes and illegal disturbances and increase outreach efforts to reduce recreational impacts to habitats

MOJAVEMAX.COM

desert conservation
PROGRAM