Applications Being Accepted for Air Pollution Control Hearing Board Voluntary Member

Applications are being accepted to fill a position on Clark County's Air Pollution Control (APC) Hearing Board. A lay member is being sought to fill the three-year term, opening on Sept. 21. Applicants must be a resident of Nevada and shall not be employed by the State of Nevada or any other political subdivision of the state. This is a voluntary appointment with no compensation.

To Apply

Applications will only be accepted on the form provided on the County's website or by contacting 702-455-0354. Completed applications may be submitted electronically to agenforcement@clarkcountynv.gov or by mailing the application to: Department of Environment and Sustainability, Division of Air Quality, Attn: Sherrie Rogge, 4701 W. Russell Rd., Suite 200, Las Vegas, NV 89118. All submitted applications become public record and available for public review. A recommendation for selection will be presented to the Clark County Commission at a future meeting.

About the Air Pollution Control Hearing Board

The seven-member APC Hearing Board is appointed by the Clark County Commission and is responsible for hearing enforcement and permit appeals, assessing civil penalties and other matters related to the Clark County Department of Sustainability's Division of Air Quality that come before the board for resolution. The APC Hearing Board generally meets four to six times per year.

Located in Clark County, Nevada, the Department of Environment and Sustainability (DES) is the region's air pollution control agency. DES also administers the Desert Conservation Program and leads the All-In Clark County initiative to address climate impacts in Southern Nevada. Whether it's protecting the air we share, protecting species like the desert tortoise or making home and vehicle electrification easier for residents, our team is united by our shared passion to create a cleaner, healthier, more sustainable Southern Nevada.

Clark County is a dynamic and innovative organization dedicated to providing top-quality service with integrity, respect and accountability. With jurisdiction over the world-famous Las Vegas Strip and covering an area the size of New Jersey, Clark is the nation's 11th-largest county and provides extensive regional services to 2.4 million citizens and 43 million visitors a year. Included are the nation's 7th-busiest airport, air quality compliance, social services and the state's largest public hospital, University Medical Center. The County also provides municipal services that are traditionally provided by cities to 1 million residents in the unincorporated area. Those include fire protection, roads and other public works, parks and recreation, and planning and development.
