

DECLARATION OF EMERGENCY

PROCLAMATION OF THE CLARK COUNTY MANAGER DECLARING A STATE OF EMERGENCY IN THE COUNTY OF CLARK, NEVADA AS A RESULT OF THE IMPACTS OF HURRICANE HILARY.

WHEREAS, the National Weather Service is forecasting historic rainfall and potential significant flooding events in the Southwest United States due to Hurricane Hilary; and

WHEREAS, this Declaration seeks to assist Clark County, its agencies, employees, businesses and residents to efficiently respond to address the impacts to Clark County; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the County Manager of the County of Clark does hereby proclaim that, under the provisions of the Nevada Revised Statutes Chapter 414 and Clark County Code Chapter 3.04, within the County of Clark, a state of emergency does exist to address the impacts to Clark County due to weather events created by storms related to Hurricane Hilary.

Nothing in this Declaration shall be construed to limit any emergency powers provided by federal, state or local laws.

PROCLAIMED THIS 20th day of August, 2023.
