

Information for Suing Someone in Small Claims

This information sheet is intended for those seeking to sue in small claims court. It explains rules and general information pertaining to small claims proceedings at Henderson Justice Court.

WHAT IS SMALL CLAIMS COURT?

Small Claims Court is a special court where lawsuits for $10,000 or less are decided (NRS 73.010). You must be at least 18 years of age to file a small claims case. The person filing the suit is referred to as the plaintiff. The person being sued is the defendant.

IS HENDERSON JUSTICE COURT THE CORRECT VENUE?

You may file your small claims case in Henderson Justice Court if:

- the defendant currently lives, works or does business within the Henderson Township;
- the defendant lived, worked or did business within Henderson Township at the time of the incident for which you are suing;
- the case involves injury to person or property where the injury occurred in Henderson Township; and/or
- the contractual obligation was to be performed, or is supposed to be performed, in Henderson Township.

If you are not sure which township is the correct one, you may enter the defendant's address at the online jurisdiction finder at <https://maps.co.clark.nv.us/ow/>.

WHAT ARE THE BASIC STEPS TO FILE A SMALL CLAIMS SUIT?

1. Send a formal demand letter. You must send a formal written demand for payment to the defendant via certified mail with a return receipt requested before you may file a small claims case. The letter must state the exact amount you are seeking and why you believe you are entitled to it. In the letter state that you intend to file an action in Small Claims Court if the matter is not resolved within 10 business days. Send separate demand letters to each person or business you plan to sue. Keep a copy of the demand letter(s), the certified mail receipt(s) and the return receipt postcard(s) to file with the court.

If the defendant is a business, the business must be named and the claim served on the corporate officer or the resident agent. Information may be obtained from the Secretary of State website at <https://esos.nv.gov/EntitySearch/OnlineEntitySearch>.

2. Wait at least 15 days* after mailing the formal demand letter and then file the required forms with the court. The following forms need to be included in your filing:
 - Affidavit of Complaint that is typed and three additional copies;
 - Copy of the formal demand letter;
 - Proof of mailing of the demand letter;
 - Return receipt postcard; and
 - Filing fee.
3. Serve the Affidavit of Complaint. After you receive a copy of the Affidavit of Complaint with the court date, a copy must be delivered to each defendant. This is called "service of process." It is good practice to serve the defendant(s) immediately after filing the Complaint, however it must be served at least thirty days prior to the court date. Service of process may be performed by the Constable, Sheriff, a private process server or a person who is NOT a party in the lawsuit and who is over the age of 18. If you ask someone other than the Constable, Sheriff or a licensed process server,

*If the demand letter was returned and marked as "refused" or "unclaimed", you may proceed without waiting 15 days or more.

that person cannot accept compensation for serving the documents and cannot serve process more than three times in a calendar year.

4. File the Proof of Service with the court at least 30 days before the court date. The proof of service form demonstrates to the court that the defendant was properly served. Failing to file the proof of service at least thirty days before the court date will result in the case being taken off calendar.
5. Prepare for trial. Organize and clearly mark evidence, receipts and books that you feel necessary to prove your case. Bring at least three copies of any evidence that you wish to present to the court (one for you, one for the judge and one for the defendant). Print out text messages and copies of emails. Do not expect the judge to read messages from your cell phone.
6. Confirm court date and time. The court assigns a court date at the time the claim is filed. The date, however, is tentative. Contact the court at least one day prior to the assigned court date to confirm date and time.

HOW DO I REQUEST A COURT REPORTER?

If you wish to request the services of the court reporter, you will need to make arrangements at least one week in advance of the hearing of your case. The official court reporter for Henderson Justice Court is Lisa Brenske, telephone number (702) 455-7933. There is a fee of $30.00 to retain the reporter. The fee does not include the cost of a transcript.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER JUDGMENT?

The court may order one party to pay money to the other party. The party who wins the case, and is owed the money, is called the judgment creditor. The party who loses the case, and owes the money, is called the judgment debtor. It is up to the judgment creditor (not the court) to collect from the judgment debtor.

If the judgment debtor does not voluntarily pay the judgment, the judgment creditor can collect money from the judgment debtor involuntarily. This is called “executing” the judgment. It is the judgment creditors’ responsibility to investigate the defendant’s place of employment, real property, bank account, etc. to ensure that the judgment is collectable.
