

Clark County Law Library

Remote Resources

Telephone Reference

The Law Library accepts phone calls at 702-455-4696 during our normal operating hours of Monday - Thursday, 7:30am - 5:30pm. While we cannot give legal advice, we are happy to direct patrons to sources of information over the phone or answer general inquiries about where to find procedures, forms, court rules and other legal information.

E-Reference

You may email us with reference questions at askinfo@clarkcountynv.gov. We will do our best to respond to such inquiries by the end of the same day or next business day.

Document Deliveries

The Law Library offers email document deliveries of up to 5 pages for free for requests for specific material that cannot be obtained through other means. Because we cannot select forms or interpret laws document delivery requests must be specific. For example: NRS 51.015, JCRCP 55, NALS 310, 124 Nev 187, etc.

Law Library Webpage

www.clarkcountynv.gov/lawlibrary

The Clark County Law Library webpage provides links to: blank pleading paper, free online legal dictionaries, state and federal codes, statutes, regulations, forms, court rules, frequently asked questions, Nevada agency links, useful government apps, other states' laws, forms, and resources, general legal topics, and more.

Comprehensive Forms Index

Prepared by the Clark County Law Library to provide a listing of available Nevada forms on government and agency webpages, and of sample forms in the NALS Handbook of Legal Forms. It is a searchable PDF meant to aid users in locating forms by title or subject. For more information on court forms please see Law Guide #7.

A link to the forms index can be found on our homepage at: www.clarkcountynv.gov/lawlibrary

Lexis Digital Library

We are pleased to offer ebook versions of popular titles online and for free! Our collection includes ebooks about general legal topics, Nevada legal topics, and more. Please see our webpage for a complete list of titles and to access these remote resources. Materials can be read at the library on our public computers or on your own devices via Wi-Fi. Remote access is available to current library account holders, who can check out up to 3 ebooks at a time for up to seven days.

Westlaw Remote Access for Pro Se Litigants

Westlaw Remote allows for up to two pro se users to simultaneously access our Westlaw resources outside the walls of the library. We hope to further the library's vision of access to justice through this special access for self-represented litigants, non-attorneys, or attorneys who are not working on behalf of a client. To access this resource, go to our webpage and click on Westlaw Remote Access.
