The group began to assemble at 12:30 at the Siegfried and Roy Park construction site, then retired for discussion to Metro Pizza, 1395 E. Tropicana Avenue. A quorum did not arrive until 1:40 p.m. Patrick Gaffey opened the meeting at 1:43 p.m. and stated that there was a quorum.

Discussion was confined to the Siegfried and Roy Park proposal. Upon hearing the assurance conveyed from the Regional Transportation Commission that it will not use the corner of Maryland Parkway and Russell Road for either a station or a stop, discussion led to a unanimous consensus that that corner, as delineated in a map drawn by Eric Strain, is the section of the park where art should be located. The subject will be discussed farther at the next regular meeting of the committee at Winchester Cultural Center, September 23, 2014 at 3:30 p.m.

Eric Strain moved for adjournment. Patty Dominguez seconded the motion. The motion passed, and the meeting ended at 2:12 p.m.
