PATRON BEHAVIOR GUIDELINES

Programs offered through the department are designed to provide a comprehensive leisure experience in a safe and supervised environment. It is our goal that participants succeed in our program. In order to ensure everyone's safety and enjoyment, participants are expected to follow the rules at all times. Staff praises and encourages desired behavior in the hope that participants will be aware that positive behavior will receive more attention than negative behavior. When this practice is ineffective, further action will be taken. Listed below are examples of inappropriate behavior, which will not be allowed:

Abusive language and inappropriate gestures: The use of foul or un-kind words, inappropriate gestures toward participants, staff, or another person(s).

Fighting/assault: Injuring another participant, staff, or person(s) through an inappropriate action.

Disrespect of staff and other patrons: Talking back or not listening to staff members, disregarding staff directions and/or displaying discourteous behavior.

Misuse of property: Improper care of equipment or items that belong to the department or site location, abuse of items belonging to others.

Stealing: Removal of property belonging to Clark County, the facility, or other participants without permission.

Spitting: Spitting on property, equipment, others, or self.

Suspension Policy

One-Day Suspension: A one-day suspension will be imposed when a problem(s) cannot be corrected or when the severity of the behavior warrants immediate removal. Staff will contact parent or guardian to immediately once a one-day suspension has been issued. The suspension will be in effect the following program day.

Multiple Day Suspension: A multiple-day suspension will be imposed when inappropriate behavior continues after a one-day suspension or in case of a more serious infraction.

Removal from the Program: Following multiple day suspensions or serious incidents, participants may be removed from the program, in addition to other youth programs offered through the department.
