

MEDIA GUIDELINES FOR VOTING SITES AND CENTRAL TABULATION Early Voting (10/22-11/4/22) and General Election Day (11/8/22)

INTERVIEWS AND INFORMATION

Arranging Interviews and Requesting Information: To arrange interviews or request information, contact Dan Kulin at the Public Communications Office at (702) 455-5534 or (702) 376-3764.

EARLY VOTING SITES AND ELECTION DAY VOTE CENTERS

See the Team Leader: Ask for the Team Leader upon entering the voting area. The Team Leader has supervisory authority at the voting site and you should make your presence known to him or her. Team Leaders may ask for your media credentials. You will need to consult with the Team Leader about filming, photographing, camera placement, lighting, etc.

Rules:

- Public observation rules apply.
- No one may interfere with the voting process or the work of election staff.
- Do not converse with voters in the voting area.
- Conduct interviews outside of the polling place.
- Media may film willing voters inside the polling place (except for interviews), but filming must not violate the secrecy of the voter's ballot, e.g., no direct or clear shots of a voter's ballot, and it must not disrupt the election process.

CENTRAL TABULATION AT THE ELECTION DEPARTMENT 965 Trade Drive, Suite F, North Las Vegas

Coordinate with the Public Communications Office: Contact Dan Kulin at (702) 455-5534 or (702) 376-3764 if you are a member of the media and plan to be at the Election Department on election night. This is necessary to coordinate parking, equipment set-up, TV vans, and related matters. A map helpful for locating the Election Department is available online.

Set Up Only in Designated Areas: The media may set up in the specific areas designated for media coverage within the central tabulation site. NO ANTENNAS ARE ALLOWED ON THE ROOF. The interior layout of the tabulation site at the Election Department is available online.

Public Viewing Area: The public viewing area is where candidates, candidate representatives, and the public must remain while observing the tabulation process.

Questions: Questions are welcome and should be addressed to Dan Kulin at the Public Communications Office at (702) 455-5534 or (702) 376-3764.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION.
