If you are currently unemployed, having difficulty making bill payments, or are interested in advancing your career, Goodwill is currently providing complimentary services to its community. The Goodwill team personnel make assessments in order to tailor job seeking based on your career goals. The program also facilitates workshops that focus on specific employment barriers you may face: resume building, interviewing techniques, etiquette classes, and more.

Goodwill Offers:

- Access to computers for job searches
- Access to copier, fax, and phone for job seekers
- Access to job boards
- Customized assistance with job search and job leads
- Interview clothes
