

Office of the Clark County Clerk
Lynn Marie Goya

It is required by Statute (NRS 602.010) that every person doing business in the state of Nevada under an assumed or fictitious name which does not show the real name of each person who owns an interest in the business must file with the County Clerk of each county in which the business is being conducted a certificate containing the information required by NRS 602.020

As part of our desire to provide practical services to you, this office is proud to announce the availability of Fictitious Firm Name information on the Internet https://www.clarkcountynv.gov/government/elected_officials/county_clerk/fictitious_firm_name.php We are making accessible to you facts associated with Fictitious Firm Names filed from 1992 through December 2006.

On January 2, 2002, Clark County Code 7.24 was amended to require that fictitious firm names be renewed every five years. All certificates to do business under an assumed or fictitious name filed before January 1, 1998 expired on December 31, 2002. Certificates filed after January 1, 1998 shall expire five years from the date of filing. Individuals whose certificates expire after January 1, 2003 will receive a reminder notice approximately 60 days prior to the expiration date. Notices will be sent to the most recent mailing address on file with our office.

- Fictitious Firm Names must be renewed every five years.
- A search of the records is advised prior to filing. A database search can be done in person for no charge at one of the locations indicated below. Individuals may also search our database from our Web site <https://clerk.clarkcountynv.gov/AcclaimWeb/Fbn/SearchTypeFbnByName>
- The filing of a fictitious firm name does not give exclusive rights to the use of that name. A fictitious filing is required by statute (NRS 602.010) and is also required by the business license office before issuing a license under a fictitious name.
- A person doing business in this state without complying with the requirements of this chapter or having falsely filed a certificate of termination, is guilty of a misdemeanor (NRS 602.090)
- Each individual business name must have a separate filing. Multiple fictitious names cannot be included on a single certificate.
- Fictitious firm name forms may be obtained at our front counter locations or on our web page: https://www.clarkcountynv.gov/government/elected_officials/county_clerk/fictitious_firm_name.php
- Fictitious firm name forms must be notarized prior to filing, or all parties must sign in person in front of a Deputy County Clerk. Identification must be shown if signing in front of a Deputy County Clerk.
