2.48.100 Eligibility procedures.

Compliance with the standards of eligibility, and the regulations of the department of social service, shall be mandatory for any person applying for county assistance.

Eligibility standards and regulations will be maintained for public review at the social service department and the county manager's office.

An applicant to a county administered federal/state-funded program shall also meet and comply with any additional federal/state provisions and requirements.

2.48.110 Verification.

Applicants for the county program shall place with the social service department a declaration of need and shall provide full disclosure of all financial and social information demonstrating a factual need. Applicants shall, by signed authorization, permit the department to verify pertinent facts of eligibility. Failure to permit reasonable investigation shall result in a denial of aid.

2.48.120 Penalty for applicant fraud.

Any person applying for assistance shall provide all required information. An applicant who [wilfully] willfully, with the intent to defraud, supplies incorrect information or who [wilfully] willfully, with the intent to defraud, withholds pertinent information will be guilty of a misdemeanor.

2.48.130 Collections and billings.

The department shall maintain a collections and billings section which shall screen accounts to determine the validity of referrals for payment of bills. Valid accounts shall be paid. The department shall also make an effort to collect directly, employ available legal remedies for collections, and, if necessary, utilize a collection agency for all outstanding applicant accounts.

2.48.140 Agency appeals.

An applicant for the county program, denied partial or total assistance, may apply for a case review to the social service director. A further appeal may be made to the county manager, or his appointed designee, for a fair hearing to be held in a timely manner.

Section 2. If any section of this ordinance or portion thereof is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not invalidate the remaining parts of this ordinance.

Section 3. All ordinances, parts of ordinances, chapters, sections, subsections, clauses, phrases or sentences contained in the Clark County Code in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 4. Except as otherwise provided in Section 2, this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and the publication thereof by title only, together with the names of the County Commissioners voting for or against its passage, in a newspaper published in and having a general circulation in Clark County, Nevada, at least once a week for a period of two (2) weeks.
